

Manning Wallamba Family History Society Inc. operates in partnership with the Greater Taree City Council Library.

The Society holds many local, interstate and international resources, which are available for all members to use in research at the library, with the help of our volunteers on duty each day in opening hours.

Internet sites such as Ancestry.com and Find My Past are held on our Library computers.

Digital scanner printer is also available for viewing many reels which contains: Shipping and newspapers etc.

The society holds regular "How To" workshops to help interested people get started with their family history. These workshops are held in the Greater Taree City Council Libraries.

Booking is essential Ph 65925290 or at the library.
