PRESIDENT'S REPORT:

Dear 125 members and our friends,

Welcome to 2018, the beginning of new finds.

The morning tea on Saturday 17th was a great morning with discussions taking place. Some possible new members and Graeme's burlesque show. Many thanks Graeme for earlier times and the how to.

Keep in mind if you are not on roster and would like to then let Janine know as the more the merrier and will help others who at times are unavailable plus you could become more proficient with tricks others know. I am constantly learning as I find out ways to do things

A great Christmas function enjoyed by all, great venue (Taree Showground Tea Rooms), good food, lots of communicating, some interesting items. Thanks and congratulations to those who organized this event. See some photos on a later page.

Unmarked graves became a hot topic over the break with a lot of information coming to light and an interview on ABC for Gloria certainly promoting. Maybe the local radio station could do an interview.

Janine's project is coming along well with many interesting stories. I had the privilege of reading some of these stories and I am sure people will appreciate this project, so if you have an interesting story of our district's past please pass on to Janine.

Remember that your input into all our projects helps tremendously, see what you can find.

A shout out to Vicki. Yes, Vicki has graduated and she has proof that she is capable - as if we didn't already know! She now has a Diploma of Family History from the University of Tasmania

Best wishes to all our members who have not been well over the break, and some still not well.

Our condolences to families who have lost love ones since our last Figtree.

Please if you have any items you feel would be suitable for the Figtree send them in at any time and there's the chance that it will be published.

Have fun with your research and remember leave something behind so others can follow, sharing is helping.

Ken

NEW MEMBERS: Welcome to the following new members: Mark Barlin, Kym and Roger Stanley, Margaret Hartnett. We hope you enjoy your genealogy journey.

BARBECUES:

BBQs will be held at BUNNINGS on the last Sunday of March, May, July, September and November. The next one will be Sunday 25th MARCH

If you are able to spare an hour or two on any of our BBQ days, please add your name to the list at the Library or email secretary@manningwallambafhs.com.au. Please remember that COVERED SHOES MUST BE WORN.

REGULAR EVENTS:

General Meeting: 1.30 pm 3rd Saturday of every month except December and January

Workshop: 1.30 pm 4th Saturday of every month except December and January

WANTED: ARTICLES FOR THE FIG TREE

The main theme for the next Fig Tree will be "My Military Ancestor". We would like to continue this theme all 2018 to commemorate the end of World War One.

"GRAVES MATTER" (Gloria Toohey)

On the morning of Australia Day I entered the 1500th unmarked or isolated grave in our "Graves Matter" database. We've been searching Trove using cemetery names – example "Gilwarra cemetery". This search brings up obituaries with family details as well as the cemetery but not the exact burial plot.

The database includes all known burials in some of the Heritage Cemeteries – Willow Point, Purfleet Aboriginal, Pilot Hill Harrington, Angel Close Forster as well as Private Family Cemeteries.

I posted this on several Facebook groups to which I belong and the responses were overwhelming with many people giving more burials, plus a message from ABC Radio who interviewed me then wrote the following news article:

<http://www.abc.net.au/news/2018-02-08/community-group-identifies-1500-unmarked-graves-nsw/9404278>

Thank you to all who have helped with this ongoing project.

If you know of any unmarked or isolated graves anywhere in the MidCoast Council area please contact the Society,

ARCHIE GREEN -GALLIPOLI VETERAN

25-11-1888 10-5-1984 (George Sawyer)

Archie, my Great Uncle was born 25th November 1888, the first son and second child of William Henry (Harry) Green and Isabella Green (Mills) of Tiri in the Upper Manning River District west of Wingham and Taree on the Mid North Coast of NSW. He was one of 12 children of the couple.

Archie enlisted for service of his country at Liverpool NSW on 27th January 1915.

National Archives search provided extensive details of his Service Record and Casualty Record.

Some pertinent details are as follows:

ENLISTMENT NUMBER: 139

OCCUPATION: Selector

MARITAL STATUS: Single

NEXT OF KIN: Father, Harry Green of Knorrit Flat, Upper Manning River NSW

AGE: 24 years 4 months

HEIGHT: 5 feet 7 $\frac{3}{4}$ inches

WEIGHT: 155 lbs

CHEST MEASUREMENT: 38 $\frac{1}{2}$ - 40 $\frac{1}{2}$ inches

COMPLEXION: Fair

EYES: Grey

HAIR: Fair

RELIGIOUS DENOMINATION: Church of England

DISTINCTIVE MARKS: Small mole on right arm above elbow

Records indicate that he was initially a trooper in the 1st Light Horse Regiment from Military Police H.Q.

and became a casualty on Gallipoli Peninsular.

He had several bouts in hospital, rejoining his unit and spent time at Alexandria, Heliopolis, Moascar, Abbaasia, Montazah and Cairo.

He spent time in hospital with appendicitis, and in July 1917 while with the Anzac Provost Corps in Cairo was admonished for "without reasonable excuse allowing a prisoner to escape whom it was his duty to guard".

On 28th August 1917 still with the Anzac Provost Corps he was again reprimanded for disobedience of orders.

30th September 1917 he was attached to MMP for police duty in Palestine.

After more illness in Abbaasia and Port Said, he was transferred to H.T. "Ulysses" and on 10th March 1918 was struck off full strength of Australian Provost Corps at Cairo for transportation home to Australia.

Archie was awarded the 1915-1918 Star, British War Medal and Victory Medal.

Archie married Alma May Sherlock at Saint Jude's Randwick on 31st January 1920 and there were seven children of the marriage.

Archie and Alma settled at Number One in the Upper Manning where they pursued grazing interests and Alma operated the local Post Office and Telephone Exchange. She was awarded an O.B.E. for her many years of service to her local community.

Alma died 22nd August 1979 and Archie died 10th May 1984 at Dubbo.

Archie vividly recalled a fishing trip at Mondrook at age 8 with his brother-in-law Bill Richardson whilst staying with his family when he caught a Jewfish (Mulloway) which weighed 64 lbs and almost pulled him out of his depth into the Manning River. Bill, on carrying the fish home on his back, the tail dragged on the ground. It was so big to scale, that it was placed on a table with its tail tied fast to a table leg and scaled using a garden spade! This was a recollection reported in an edition of The Manning River Times.

FRANK ROBARDS (JACK BROWN) - 1891-1918

My father's half-brother- Gloria Toohey

Jack Brown was born in Bathurst in 1891 to Sarah Ellen Brown (father unknown). He was 'adopted by a widow, Mrs Phoebe Robards from Molong NSW. His birth was not registered until 1910, after the death of his adopted mother.

REGISTERED -19/12/1910 TOMINGLEY

NOTES -DECLARATION LODGED IN THE DISTRICT REGISTRAR'S OFFICE 31/10/1910, TOO LATE FOR THE BIRTH TO BE REGISTERED IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE ACT

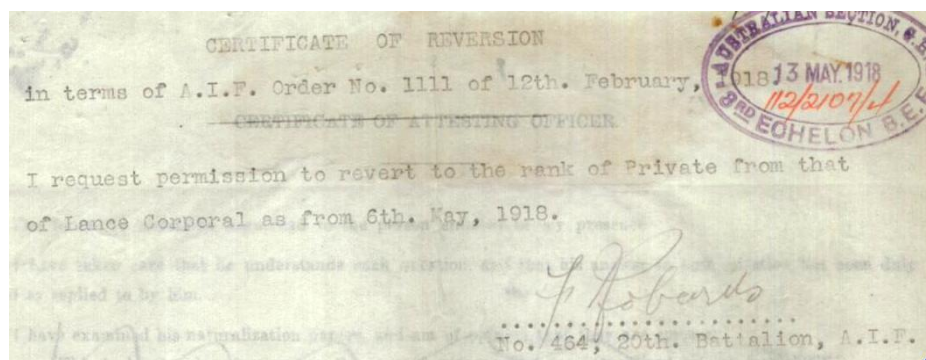

When he enlisted (15th May 1915) as Frank Robards, he named his birth mother Mrs Sarah McGaw of "Gnarwarre", Tomingley NSW as his next of kin. He joined the A Company, 20th Battalion and left Australia on 15th June 1915.

Soon after he landed at Gallipoli he was admitted to hospital with a hernia. This hospitalisation involved his being transferred to and from several Hospital Ships, to Malta and then to Fulham in England. It was there that he met Violet Marie Dorothea Groves. Another name change- "Jack Franklin Robards" married Violet in St Matthew's Church, Hammersmith on 25th March 1916 with the permission of Violet's father, William Henry Groves, as Violet was seventeen.

On 6th March 1917 Frank was promoted to Lance Corporal and, after a short time to Temporary Corporal due to the wounding of Senior Officer. He reverted to Lance Corporal on being wounded (shrapnel wound to the chest) and evacuated to England. (18 May 1917)

During this time (April-June) Frank and Violet's son Jack William Robards was born (June Q 1917 1a 310).

Apparently promotion did not sit well with Frank as he requested permission revert to Private.

464 Pte Frank Robards was killed in action 31st August 1918.

Dear Madam,

With reference to the report of the regrettable loss of your husband, the late No. 464 Private F. Robards, 20th Battalion, I am now in receipt of advice which shows that he was killed in action on 31.8.18 during an attack on the German position at Mont St. Quentin near Peronne. His death which was instantaneous was caused by being hit in the groin and stomach by several pieces of shell. The body was recovered and buried in a French Cemetery west of St. Gond trench and east of the German wire - on the outskirts of Clery-sur-Somme. A cross was erected over the grave.

Frank now rests in the Peronne Communal Cemetery Extension in the Somme, France

Dear Madam,

With reference to my communication of the 20th Feb., 1919, concerning the regrettable loss of your son, the late No. 464, Private F. Robards, - 20th Battalion, I am now in receipt of further advice which shows that his remains have been exhumed and re-interred in Peronne Communal Cemetery Extension, Peronne.

This work is carried out with every measure of care and reverence in the presence of a Chaplain.

Yours faithfully,

Mrs. McGaw,
Gnarwarre,
Tomingley,
N.S. WALES.

STANLEY GEORGE GRACE (Vicki Fletcher)

Private Stanley George Grace was the youngest son and tenth child of George and Jane Grace of Belgrave Street Kempsey. The war had only been going about six months when Stan married Elenor Irene Freeman in February 1915.¹ Sadly three months later she died from pneumonia. She was only just over seventeen and a half years old.^{2 3}

After nearly twelve months of mourning, Stan enlisted in the Australian Imperial Force (A.I.F.) in Newcastle on 17 April 1916. He was sent to the West Maitland A.I.F. Depot and then Rutherford where on 17 July 1916 he was appointed to the 3rd Reinforcements of the 34th Battalion.^{4 5} After undergoing training with the Battalion he proceeded overseas on board the HMAT A68 Anchises on 24 August 1916 from Sydney disembarking with his unit at Devonport, England on 11 October.⁶

Here his unit joined with the rest of the 9th Infantry Training Brigade at Larkhill Camp where they would do their final training before embarking for France. His arrival in the Western Front coincided with the beginning of a very cold winter. Six days later Stan was in the trenches for the first time in the L'EpINETTE Sector. The "relief was completed without incident" on November 28.⁷

In late May 1917, the Battalion marched to billets in Nieppes and made preparations for what was to be the Messines Offensive. At 3.10 a.m. on 7 June, Zero Hour, the Messines Ridge roared into life and the Anzac Corps advanced against the enemy. Fighting was fierce. Victory was gained by the Allies, but at a great cost.⁸ Stan's Battalion alone lost over 380 men.⁹

Their next major battle was the last phase of the third battle of Ypres where on October 12 they were to take back the village of Passchendaele. Nothing went to plan for the men of the 3rd Division. By the end of this battle, the 34th Battalion had lost about 340 men including about 15 officers.¹⁰

By 1 February 1918, Stan was unwell and was sent from the 2nd Casualty Clearing Station to the 39th General Hospital at Havre. He rejoined his unit on 30 March 1918.¹¹ At the time his Battalion were heading towards Villers-Bretonneux. On April 4 the Battalion was ready to defend the village of Villers-Bretonneux.¹² During the afternoon the enemy bombarded the village.¹³ Sometime between April 3 and April 5, Stan was killed.¹⁴ A couple of soldiers advised he had been hit by a shell in a trench near Villers-Bretonneux.¹⁵ His body was never recovered. His name is on the Australian National Memorial at Villers-Bretonneux.¹⁶

SYDNEY JAMES MURRAY MC (Gillian Kirton)

My gg uncle, Richard Apter Hellings, was born 1830 in Brixham Devon, the son of a master mariner (as was my great grandfather).

He arrived and settled in Sydney in about 1850. In 1854 he married Bridget Reagan but by 1858 he was a widower and had married Elizabeth Fox, 25 years old, an assisted migrant from Lincolnshire, England. They lived at Woolloomooloo where Richard had a boat-shed, was proprietor of Hellings' baths, and was a prominent yachtsman in the 1860s and 1870s. In the 1880s he became Inspector of Fisheries.

Richard and Elizabeth had eleven children - seven boys and four girls. Only one of the girls (Mary Jane known as Polly) lived past infancy. In March 1889 she married Thomas Archibald Bruce Murray, an engineer. They had five children, four boys and one girl. Sadly the marriage did not last. Polly left Thomas in 1900 on account of his adultery and cruelty. When she was granted a divorce in September 1900 she was left with five children under 11 years.

Sydney James Murray (born 1894) and two younger brothers all enlisted in The Great War and all returned, which must have been a miracle!

Sydney James sailed for France on the "Ceramic A40" on June 25 1915 aged 21 years. He became 2nd Lieutenant 18th Battalion AIF. He was wounded at Amiens on August 9 1918. He was later awarded the Military Cross (MC) in recognition of his efforts.

His citation in the London Gazette dated February 1 1919 read as follows: "In the advance of the afternoon of August 9 1918 east of Amiens this officer led his platoon with great coolness and bravery. He was wounded by a shell shortly after the commencement of the attack and in spite of the pain of the wound continued with his company until 1am the following day when he was ordered to report to the RMO. He continually toured the front line under very heavy fire of machine guns, snipers and artillery, encouraging his men and obtaining information for his Company Commander as to the situation. During the consolidation in open country under direct observation, his work and encouragement amongst his men and his thorough grip on the situation were of the utmost value at a time when the slightest hitch might have caused disaster."

He was sent to King George Hospital in London.

On April 21 1919 he married Ivy Florence Parker in St Paul's Church.

While he was recuperating Sydney worked as a farm hand in UK. They had a daughter born 1922 and returned to Australia in 1924, and later had a son, Gladstone John. They lived in Croydon and he became a fitter and machinist.

Sydney James Murray died in 1964 leaving his wife, two children, their spouses and six grandchildren. His remains are in the Military Section of Rookwood Crematorium.

I have been doing family research for quite a while now and I keep coming across omissions from trees. And I have to ask the question "Why?? Just because the child died young doesn't mean that they never existed?" So many times it happens, even in my own family.

It wasn't until I Googled myself on NSW BDM that I found that my aunty had a child who had died not long after birth and not being married at the time, the birth/death was never mentioned again. Until I came along! My mother gave me the same name (whether intentional or not).

When I helped my cousin do his tree we realised that he never knew he had a half sister. We purchased her birth and death certificate, discovered where she was buried and my cousin had a beautiful headstone placed on her gravesite which until then was simply a block of dirt in Moree Cemetery. Another unmarked grave!! This little girl now has family who visit her every time they pass that way. And maybe one day I will too.

So I ask please do not throw away your ancestors. They are hard enough to find as it is! (J Bell)
